An Acrostic.

Swell the glad music o'er mountain and vale,
Angelical voices have freighted the gale:
Mountain and moorland and homestead are free,
Union forever from centre to sea!
Echo the song, oh slumbering wave,
Liberty's safeguard is Tilden the brave.
Join in the chorus, low murmuring rill!—
Tilden triumphant, has work to do still,
In the near future the White House appears,
Leaping for joy after weeping for years. [foe,
Dauntless Sam measured his steel with the
Een heaven directed his death dealing blow.
Now Grant and his plundering banditti lie low.

Repetition of the Louisiana Infamy.

THAT VENERABLE PATRIOT, WILLIAM CULLEN BRYANT, ON THE LOUISIANA USURPATION.

In view of the attempt now being made by Grant, the Republican leaders and the Louisiana carpet-baggers to repeat the outrages practiced by them in Louisiana two years ago, we reproduce the speech of Wm. Cullen Bryant delivered at the Cooper Institute, N. Y., Jan. 12th, 1875. Mr. Bryant was the first speaker and was greeted with a storm of applause. He said:

A few days since the intelligence was brought us that the armies of Spain had turned against the Republic, had overthrown it, and placed Don Alfonso, the son of Isabella on the throne, ejecting the President Serrano, who had fled to France. We rejoiced that we belonged to a country where such proceedings were unknown, and where the Government changed hands only in obedience to the will of the people, peaceably expressed at the polls. We were, however, almost at the same moment, astonished to hear from New Orleans that Gen. Sheridan, lately sent to New Orleans by the President, had occupied the hall of the Louisiana Legislature and purged it of the Conservative members, as they are called, by thrusting them into the street. My friends, such a method of changing the government of a State may do for Spain, but it will not do for this country. A few years since, while Isabella was yet on the throne, Gen. O'Donnell, dissatisfied with her Ministry, sent his soldiers to turn them out, and they did it. He replaced the obnoxious Cabinet with one of his own, and the Government went on in new hands. We are in the habit of managing things differently here, and by God's help we shall continue to do so hereafter. We have a Constitution, my friends, and by that instrument the President has no right to intermeddle in the affairs of a State, save in two cases, first, to protect the State from invasion, and, secondly, on application of the Legislature or the Executive when the Legislature cannot be convened, to protect the State against domestic violence.

What authority, fellow citizens, is there in these provisions for the President to set himself up as a judge of elections, and drag from the legislative chamber those whom he chooses to regard as having no right to their seats? He should have left this to the courts of law. He might as well, if he should be a candidate for a third term of the Presidency, send his minions to disperse the electoral colleges in those States which shall refuse him their vote.

How happens it that men educated to the profession of arms at our national military school seem not to understand what are the rights of the citizens and what the due limits of the military power? If Gen. Sheridan, that daring soldier, but despiser of civil rights, had either been properly trained or had not forgotten his training, he would never have obeyed the mandate which ordered him to New Orleans on that guilty errand. He would have said: "I owe my education to this Republic; I was brought up to be its soldier and servant, and not the vassal of the President."

A former application of Governor Kellogg of Louisiana, made to the President for military aid four months since, is used as the pretext of this invasion of the legislative chamber of Louisiana. The application had its effect at the time the President issued his proclamation of warning, and the people submitted. There were four months of peace. A new state of things has arisen, and if it was attended with danger of domestic violence, the President should have been requested to interpose. But no such request was made—in fact, there was no danger on which to found the request. It is nonsense to say that turning five members out of the legislative chamber is a protection against domestic violence. How long is such an application as that made by Governor Kellogg in force? If good for four months, it is good for forty—good for a century.

Great stress is laid upon Sheridan's assertions that the whole State of Louisiana is given over to lawlessness and anarchy, and that murder is the natural and usual form of death in that State. This is solemnly denied on very high authority.

The wrong done has no possible extenuation. I regard this question solely as a solemn question of constitutional law. No matter who desired the interference of the military, it should not have been given but in the way of the Constitution; otherwise it is an act from which no citizen has a right to withhold his condemnation. It must be rebuked the instant it is perpetrated. The evil must be crushed in its infancy, while its bones are yet in the gristle, and before it becomes formidable as a precedent. These practices, which contemplate the subjection of local politics to the Federal authorities by the exercise of the military power, must be denounced, must be stopped, must be broken up forever.

Let me say, in conclusion, that the proceedings of this meeting, so far as the great proportion of those who take part in them are concerned, have no party purpose or object. Far from us be the petty and narrow policy which could so pervert them. A sincere desire to preserve the Constitution from violation, and to prevent an act of arbitrary power from becoming a precedent in the future, is and should be our single motive.

Says the Santa Clara Argus: Leland Standford is making arrangements to build a mansion on the tract lately purchased by him and located in the northern part of the county. A hundred thousand dollars are the figures mentioned as the cost of the new building."

The Conspiracy Broadly Developed.

Though the returns from all parts of the country received on the night of the election proved clearly that Mr. Tilden was the choice of the people, the Republican managers, with Zach Chandler at their head, would not admit it, but stubbornly maintained that Hayes was elected. Since then they have persisted in this declaration in the face of authentic figures from the counties and parishes of the disputed States, fully proving that the majority of their citizens have given their votes to Mr. Tilden; and to-day they persist in this with a greater show of determination and confidence than ever.

What is the reason for this strange stubbornness in denying facts, and this unprecedented assurance in pronouncing States sure for Hayes when their local returns show that they have certainly gone for Tilden? This reason is the existence in these States of what are called Returning Boards, bodies absolutely irresponsible, and not only Republican in their composition, but either composed of men who are to pass on their own reelection, or who are under the direct control of officeholders like Kellogg in Louisiana and Chamberlain in South Carolina. These Boards claim and exercise the power to change and set aside the returns of the local authorities, and to throw out such part of these returns as they please; and thus they can make a majority where the people have made a minority, declare those candidates elected whom the people have defeated, and give power to those whom the people have turned out and turn out those whom the people have voted in. This has been done before in Louisiana, and when the people of the State rose against it, and in a peaceful manner installed the men they had just selected at the polls, Grant at once sent down soldiers and drove out the officials thus installed, and by force restored those whom the Returning Board had counted in.

So it has already been done in Louisiana, and so it is to be done again; and hence the astonishing confidence of the Republican managers and of the chief Republican organs. This is the reason why they feel so sure and talk so loudly. They rely on the Returning Board, and on Grant—on fraud and on force.

If this scheme is carried through, will it not be a military revolution? Of course it will; but does that fact constitute any safeguard for the Republic? Will Grant, or Chandler, or Phil. Sheridan be afraid of it? A revolution was accomplished by the bayonet two years ago in Louisiana, and the country bore it quietly. Now the initial stages of another revolution were accomplished by General Grant when he ordered soldiers to oversee the voting in the disputed States, and the country has borne that quietly; and now Sheridan has gone to New Orleans to complete the work.—N. Y. Sun.

Senator Bayard's View.

"The World publishes a conversation with Senator Bayard of Delaware, in which, after giving his opinion that the course of the President in inviting prominent Republicans to go to Louisiana to witness the count was illegal and improper, he gave his views on the situation in the following words:

"I hate the very name of party in connection with such an emergency as now apparently confronts the American people. Whether successful or not, I should ask or seek nothing today from any man, either as a Democrat or as a Republican, but simply try to control him by a sense of his duty as a citizen to the Constitution and the laws of his country. I have given my adhesion to the Democratic party because I believe it to be the party of law and order, and I believe to-day that its success is firmly entrenched in both, and that it only needs that its candidates and its members should stand by the law as it is written, in letter and in spirit, in order to have the full consummation of its victory in the results of the Presidential election of Tuesday last. Therefore it is that I strenuously deprecate any resort, no matter how well intentioned, to irregular methods for controlling legal results. To apply these remarks to the case in point. Whether in dealing with Louisiana, South Carolina or Florida, what I mean to say is this: The election in these States has been held; the votes have been cast, the ballots are, or ought to be, in existence, and they disclose, or did disclose, a majority on one side or on the other. Which way these majorities, or any of them, are, is a question of fact, which is, or ought to be capable of distinct and positive proof if the laws have not been violated. It is by that fact that the American people must stand and not by any false and counterfeit presentment of that fact, whether prepared by the fraud of an official hand or not. Never was there an occasion more gravely calling for an utter absence of anything like personal irritation or party heat; but, at the same time, never was there an occasion demanding more deliberate and grave determination to insist upon the very truth and right of this question, under the authority of the law and of the law alone. Our path will then be plainly marked out for us, and we can and will tread it with an unfaltering step."

SUSPICIOUS.—One by one the Southern States passed from the hands of the carpet-baggers until but three remained under their control. In all those States from which the carpet-bagger was driven, peace, order, renewed business confidence, and good feeling between whites and blacks succeeded, as if by magic, the robbery, confusion, distrust and anarchy of the preceding period. The States of Florida, South Carolina and Louisiana, are still in the hands of these worthless fellows. In these States we have had race troubles, wrangling disputes and rascalities without end. To cap the climax of their infamy, these insolent adventurers intend to make the attempt to change the electoral vote in the States under their control. They wish to stir up another tumult that, in the political agitation which would follow, they, the scurf and scum of creation, may keep on top. They will fail because they are attempting to set aside, not only the verdict of the States in which they reside, but the will of a vast popular majority of the people of the United States.—Sonoma Democrat Nov. 18th.

Sending Soldiers to Protect the Predetermined Frauds.

GRANT'S LATEST USURPATION.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Another step in the direction of a military despotism has been taken by Grant in the order that might properly have emanated from Cortina or Porfirio Diaz in Mexico. First he sends troops into South Carolina and other States to control the elections, and having failed to suppress the popular will by that expedient, he now marches them into Florida, to help count out the honest vote for Tilden and elect Hayes by a bare-face fraud.

This daring attempt to interfere with the freedom of elections and to subvert the people's choice, is the most revolutionary and dangerous of the many outrages on the constitution and laws which Grant and his party have perpetrated. Without a pretext or the color of authority, he audaciously tells Gen. Sherman to "instruct Gen. Augur, in Louisiana, and Gen. Ruger, in Florida, to be vigilent, with the force at their command, to preserve peace and good order, and to see that the proper and legal Boards of Canvassers are unmolested in the performance of their duties."

It is not pretended that there is disorder in Florida, or the semblance of a case, as was alleged in South Carolina by the abuse of legal forms, to warrent a call on the President for troops, or to justify his interposition in any way. The demand made by Gov. Stearns was a partizan trick, inspired by the conspirators who are now seeking to count in Hayes. A large fraud is intended by his canvassers, and fearing the popular wrath at the cheat, he has the army to protect the villiany.

Grant, who is personally responsible for the frauds perpetrated in Louisiana in 1872 and 1874, which he upheld by the bayonet, and in the teeth of the most damning testimony, affects sudden interest for fairness. His professions are now to be judged by his former action. From first to last he has been the support and reliance of the carpet-bag thieves who have stolen possession of the Southern Governments. Without his aid as President, and of his administration, the whole system would have been tumbled to pieces five years ago.

This pretence of impartiality is only a cover for the worst design, and is intended to mislead the public into a mistaken confidence. He instructs his military "to see that the proper and legal Boards of Canvassers are unmolested in the performance of their duties." That is to say, the troops are to protect Kellogg's Returning Board, and Stearn's Returning Board, under different names, in their rascalities, against any remonstrance on the part of the defrauded people.

That is the first step. Then, when these boards have thus defeated the popular will, Chamberlain, Kellogg, and Stearns are to return Hayes electors, and Grant, recognizing them as the regularly constituted authorities, will strive to consumate the conspiracy. It is boldly given out at Washington that the army and navy will be employed to carry out this projected usurpation of power, cost what it may.

This is the desperate programme of the hour, and it proceeds upon the theory that the people who have quietly submitted to other wrongs, are too much demoralized to strike a blow in defense of their liberties and imperilled institutions. Grant assumes that the majority of 300,000 voters, who on Tuesday last, in twenty States, recorded themselves for Tilden and reform, will tamely submit to be cheated before their eyes out of the fruits of their great victory.

When Grant reckons on the army and navy to do the work of treason, and to execute the plans of an infamous conspiracy, he may, perhaps, reckon without his host. If ever the crisis should culminate in such a calamity as is now threatened by the corruptionists to retain power, some of the chiefs would, perhaps, be among the first victims of their own plot to overthrow the Government and to establish a dictatorship on its ruins.

Grant and his cabal of generals and conspiring politicians had better reflect long and well before they proceed to extremities. They will do well also to take the council of wise and calm Republicans, who deprecate this whole scheme, and who, knowing Tilden to be fairly elected, want to see him inaugurated. When the passions of the hour are cooled, the judgment of all upright men, and particularly of those who have interests to protect, will be on the side of reason and right. New York Sun, Nov. 14.

TWEED BACK IN HIS OLD QUARTERS.—NEW YORK, Nov. 23d.—Wm. M. Tweed landed this afternoon at the foot of Grand street, on the North river, from a revenue cutter, was put in a carriage and taken to Ludlow-street Jail, where he was admitted through the gate, and not by the office as usual. He remarked on being admitted to the cell by Warden Watson, "I thought I would come and see you again." He was visited this afternoon by W. M. Tweed, Jr., and an unknown person. They remained two hours. Tweed then closed his door and refused to be seen. After supper he retired and was not visited again during the night. The prison is thronged by reporters and visitors. Tweed's delivery by the naval officers was made in presence of District Attorney Phelps, United States District Attorney Bliss and Sheriff Connor. Mr. Phelps has not decided yet whether the forgery suits shall be pressed against Tweed. However, an order has been served on the sheriff, calling for the arrest of Tweed should he procure bail in the civil suits pending. A gentleman who saw Tweed, in answer to inquiries, said he is crushed and broken. He has lost his old buoyancy and defiant spirit. In fact he is suffering from pleurisy now, and is actually ill. He seemed wearied and only anxious to know about his old acquaintances. He seemed desolate and desirous of companionship more than anything else. His vest is a third too large for him, and his features are shrunken and pinched. He has suffered intensely. He is entirely in the dark as to what to do, and even is without legal advice. He needs medical advice more than anything now.

The New York Tribune's New Orleans correspondent, under date of November 14th, says: "The Republicans here do not deny that a majority of the votes actually polled are against them."

Temper of the People.

A PROTEST.—PORTSMOUTH, Ohio, Nov. 15.—The Democracy are firing cannon here to night over Tilden's election by the votes actually cast. At a mass meeting the following were adopted unanimously and greeted with applause:

Whereas, It appears from returns in both Republican and Democratic papers that a majority of all the votes actually cast in the States of Florida and South Carolina were cast for Tilden and Hendricks for President and Vice-President of the United States; and, whereas, it appears they have over a quarter of a million of a popular majority of the States, and a majority of the Electoral College; and whereas corrupt canvassing boards in the carpet bag States, backed by the army sent into peaceful States in violation of the Constitution by a partisan President, to subvert the rights of States; therefore, be it

Resolved, By the Democracy of Portsmouth, in mass meeting assembled, that while we council obedience to law and deprecate unnecessary agitations calculated to break the peace and cripple the credit of the Government, we pledge our support to the House, and will stand by it in throwing out the electoral vote of any State fraudulently counted against Tilden and Hendricks, and pledge our lives to it in resisting any revolutionary action on the part of any person or persons who shall seek to subvert any legal and constutional act of the House. We call upon our bretheren in other places, we appeal to all who are in favor of popular government, to hold mass meetings protesting against such foul injustice as now seems to be contemplated by the Radical managers, with a firm reliance in the wisdom and the patriotism and courage of the American people. We appeal to them irrespective of party ties, to rise in their might and make open and manly protest against this crowning folly, which is to be consumated by corrupt men, who care more for the spoils of office than the peace, credit and welfare of the country. Let appeals from every hamlet in the land go to Congress to deal fairly with the people, to the end that the Government of the people, for the people, and by the people, shall not perish from the earth.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be transmitted to Samuel J. Tilden and Thomas A. Hendricks, to our Representative in Congress, our United States Senator, and that copies be furnished to the Democratic and independent daily press, and all such papers be requested to publish the same.

Oregon "Salmon Factories."

The banks are precipitious nearly all the way to the junction of the Willamette, and there is singularly little farming country on the immediate river. Below Kalama there are few spots where there is even room for a small farmstead. But along this part of the river are the "salmon factories," whence come the Oregon salmon, which, put up in tin cans, are now being bought not only in our Eastern States, but all over the world. The fish are caught in weirs, in gill nets, as shad are caught in the Hudson; and this is the only part of the labor performed by white men. The fishermen take the salmon in boats to the factory—usually a large frame building erected on piles over the water—and here they fall into the hands of Chinese, who get for their labor a dollar a day and their food.

The salmon are flung up on a stage, where they lie in heaps of a thousand at a time, a surprising sight to an Eastern person, for in such a pile you may see fish weighing from thirty to sixty pounds. The work of preparing them for cans is conducted with exact method and great cleanliness, water being abundant. One Chinaman seizes a fish and cuts off his head; the next slashes off the fins and disembowels the fish; it then falls into a large vat, where the blood soaks out—a salmon bleeds like a bull—and after repeated soaking and washing in different vats, it falls into the hands of one of a gang of Chinese whose business it is, with heavy knives, to chop the fish into chunks of suitable size for the tins. These pieces are plunged into brine, and presently stuffed into the cans, it being the object to fill each can as full as possible with fish, the bone being excluded. The top, which has a small hole pierced in it, is then soldered on and five hundred tins set on a form are lowered into a huge kettle of boiling water, where they remain until the heat has expelled all the air. Then a Chinaman neatly drops a little solder over each pin-hole, and after another boiling, the object of which is, I believe, to make sure that the cans are hermetically sealed, the process is complete, and the salmon are ready to take a journey longer and more remarkable even than that which their progenitors took when, seized with a curious rage of spawning, they ascended the Columbia to deposit their eggs in its head-waters, near the centre of the continent.

I was assured by the fishermen that the salmon do not decrease in numbers or in size, yet, in this year, 1875, more than two millions of pounds were put up in tin cans on the Lower Columbia alone, besides fifteen or twenty thousand bbls. of salted salmon.—Nordhoff.

The Yolo Democrat,

With a Weekly Supplement.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF YOLO COUNTY.

WOODLAND, CAL:

Thursday, Nov. 30th, 1876.

SOLANO SUPERVISORS.—The new Board of Supervisors of Solano county will stand three Democrats—Callender, Baker and McCrory, to two Republicans—Hoyt and Harrier.

OUTRAGES.—If the reports of outrages committed in the South during the late campaign, on both sides, were true, the prepetrators should be consigned to the gallows and receive the execration of decent people everywhere.

THIRD DISTRICT.—Tilden's majority in the Third Congressional District is about eight hundred. Luttrell's is about nine hundred; so he has not lost so very much of his old majority after all the Radical croakings to that effect.

GRANT'S OPINION.—The Springfield Republican says: "We have private information on good authority that President Grant and Col. Forney both think that Tilden is chosen; but, on the other hand, Zack Chandler smiles serenely, and says he knows that Hayes is elected."

WHICH?—The Examiner asks: "Which is likely to be most sincere in seeking an honest count—Ex-Gov. Palmer or John A. Logan? Lyman Trumbull or John A. Kasson? Geo. W. Julian or James A. Garfield?" Honest men of both parties will have no difficulty in answering.

WHERE IS THE AUTHORITY?—The Examiner says the Radical argument has come to this: Governor Tilden has been elected by the people, but Governor Hayes is going to be elected by the Returning Boards. Will our Radical friends refer us to that section of the Constitution of the United States which provides for the election of President by Returning Boards?

A CHECK.—The Returning Board of South Carolina having disregarded the order of the Supreme Court of the State, were fined $1,500 each and imprisoned. They were afterwards released on habeas corpus, but were still under surveillance at last accounts, and the end is not yet. The Court ordered the Board to issue certificates to the State officers and Legislators elected; but they threw out two of the strong Democratic counties and issued certificates to Chamberlain and his corrupt gang. Hence the trouble.

SUSPICIOUS.—Last year Gov. Irwin carried San Francisco over both Phelps and Bidwell by a majority of some three thousand. The total vote of the city was then 25,458, and it was admitted that nearly the total voting population were out; this year the total vote of the city is 41,600—an increase of 16,142 votes in a single year. This may be all right, but it certainly looks very suspicious. It will be seen, too, that Hayes' majority in the State, being under 3,000, is less than Governor Irwin's majority in San Francisco for Governor last year.

FLORIDA.—Manton Marble, late editor of the New York World, telegraphed to the Herald on the 28th from Tallahassee that certified copies of the official returns in the custody of the Democratic State Committee show a clear majority for the Tilden Electors over and above all frauds. No returns have been shown by the Republicans, nor have any official figures thus far been discovered. The latest press report is that the Democrats have two Electors and the Republicans one. Still later, the Republicans claim all, with one county not in.

ILLEGITIMATE COLORADO.—It seems at last to have dawned upon the obtuse intellect of the ordinary Radical that Colorado was admitted to the Sisterhood of States by a proclamation from President Grant in July 1876, in pursuance of an enabling act passed by the last Republican Congress. So Colorado, an exchange aptly suggests, takes her place in the cradle with the other bastards—Nevada, Nebraska and West Virginia. The same paper says the Republican party have never yet given birth to a legitimate child. The Democratic Congress is clear from the enormity of admitting Colorado.

WE SHALL SEE.—In a recent Record-Union leader assuming Hayes' election, appeared the following revolutionary sentences: "The Democrats have their choice of two courses only. Either they must acquiesce peaceably in the election of Hayes, or they must take up arms for the inauguration of Tilden. There is no half-way position; no debatable ground in the whole matter, and this the public may as well realize first as last." If this means anything it means that if the Record-Union could have its way, Hayes should be declared the next President whether he has been fairly elected or not. That Radical concern would trust the determination of this matter, so important to the whole country, to the infamous carpet-baggers composing Grant's Returning Boards in the disputed States; not to the Electoral College, supervised by Congress. Fortunately, however, these Boards are not the final arbiters. If they were, the matter would have been settled for Hayes long ago.

Of Greater Importance.

When the choice of the people of Louisiana, two years ago, in the selection of their own State officers and members of the Legislature, was reversed by Grant's minion soldiery, it was only a local State matter, so far as its direct effect was concerned, and it was, though under protest, acquiesced in by the people. Now, however, the Radicals, apparently under the lead of the Administration, by again refusing to allow the people to express their free choice at the ballot box—and this under their own supervision at all the polling places in the State—thereby attempting to thwart the will of the citizens of a sovereign State of the Union, have made the case of Louisiana one of National importance; involving, they say, the question of who shall be the next President of the United States. It is not denied that Tilden received a majority of some eight thousand votes in Louisiana, under Radical supervision at the polls. Neither is it denied that South Carolina and Florida have given him a majority of votes. But the truth is just here: Mr. Tilden lacks one electoral vote, outside of these three States, of having a majority in the Electoral College; and the determination seems to be, to allow the Grant Returning Boards to throw out enough Democratic votes in Louisiana, South Carolina and Florida to make it appear that the Radicals have a majority. Will this infamous course be permitted by the American people, now that it has become a matter of national importance? In other words, shall Zach. Chandler and Grant be allowed to name the next President of the United States? We cannot, will not believe it. And this being the question at issue, the Democracy, together with the honest and patriotic of all parties throughout the country, are watching with jealous eye every turn of the wheel, and by their representatives on the contested ground are trying to prevent, if possible, the consummation of the revolutionary schemes of the Radical party. Mr. Tilden has secured 203 electoral votes and received a popular majority of nearly half a million votes. But because three of the States south of Mason and Dixon's line are still under the rule of the Radical carpet-baggers, another attempt is made to practically disfranchise them and count their votes for Hayes. And this infamous attempt to defraud the people seems to be acquiesced in by the Administration at Washington and to be sustained by the strong arm of the military power under the direction of the President. The 90,000 office-holder are desperate in their attempt to hold on to their fat positions, and are determined that they will not give them up if by any means, fair or foul, they can manage to retain them for another four years. Verily, the Radical party dies hard; but the fiat of the American people has gone forth, and die it must.

Who Shall Count the Electoral Votes?

In Article XII of the Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, will be found the words following:

"The Electors shall meet in their respective States and vote by ballot for President and Vice-President, one of whom, at least, shall not be an inhabitant of the same State with themselves. They shall name in their ballots the person voted for as President, and in distinct ballots the person voted for as Vice-President, and they shall make distinct lists of all persons voted for as President, and of all persons voted for as Vice-President, and of the number of votes for each, which lists they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of Government of the United States, directed to the President of the Senate. The President of the Senate shall in the presence of the Senate and House of Representatives open all the certificates, and the votes shall then be counted."

Counted by whom? It is by implication only that the Constitution answers the question. Is the President of the Senate authorized, by virtue of his office, to do the counting? To maintain that view, the Constitution should read, "The President of the Senate shall, in the presence of the Senate and House of Representatives, open all the certificates and count the votes." But such is not the reading of the Constitution. All that the President of the Senate is authorized to do is to open the certificates.

Is the right to count the votes the exclusive prerogative of the Senate? To authorize the inference, the Constitution should read: "And the votes shall then be counted by or under the direction of the Senate." But neither in words nor in substance does the Constitution so read. A similar process of reasoning proves that the prerogative of counting the votes is not vested in the House of Representatives exclusively.

What then? The certificates must be opened, and the reasonable inference is, that the votes must be counted "in the presence of the Senate and House of Representatives." Is each House, separately, to authorize each successive step in the counting? Manifestly not. What then is the only remaining inference? When the two Houses meet in Joint Convention for the purpose of counting the votes they should act as one body, and a majority vote, however composed, should decide all controverted questions.—Examiner.

ONE-SIDED.—Says the Record-Union: "Owing to the fact that one of the Democratic Electors in North Carolina is ineligible, it is probable that the Republicans will have an Elector from that State." If the question of ineligibility is to come in, there is no doubt at all as to which party will come out ahead. There have been three Radicals mentioned as being disqualified to every Democrat.

South Carolina.

The latest news from this State, dated the 28th, is that the State House has been taken possession of by United States troops and many of the legally elected members of the Legislature prevented from entering at the time of the organization. Says the telegraph:

At 9 A.M. General Gordon, United States Senator from Georgia, and General Johnston, Senator from Virginia, with Messrs. Peck and Jeffreys, members of the Legislature, demanded admittance to the State House. The rotunda was filled with troops, and arms were stacked around Washington's statue. The members of the Legislature exhibited their certificates, from the Supreme Court, of their election, and the Corporal of the Guard refused them admittance, under orders. The Democratic members then met in caçus, and at 11:15 A. M. proceeded in a body to demand admittance. In the meantime General Hampton had an interview with General Ruger, who then changed the orders so as to allow members to be admitted to the State House, but not to the hall of the Senate or House of Representatives. The Democratic members of the House proceeded to the door of the House of Representatives, with the delegations from Edgefield and Laurens at their head, and demanded admission on the certificates of election taken from the records of the Supreme Court. Six soldiers were ranged on either side of the approach to the door, with two officers in the center. The certificates of the Edgefield and Laurens delegates being presented, were decided invalid by the doorkeeper, whereupon the whole body of Democrats withdrew.

The following protest was read from the steps in front of the State House on Tuesday:

We, the majority of the members of the House of Representatives of South Carolina elect, protest against the refusal to admit us to the House of Representatives; we protest against the military power of the United States barring the passage into the State House of members elect of the Legislature; we protest against the legality of the proceeding, and especially against the army of the United States being placed, for the purpose of this exclusion, under the command of one John B. Dennis, a partisan of Governor Chamberlain; we protest against the said Dennis' instructions to the guard to admit no one to the State House except upon his own pass or a pass of A. O. Jones, former Clerk of the House, who may thus exclude all except his own partisans, and whereby the Republican programme is to organize said House. We have presented ourselves with the judgment of the highest Court of South Carolina, certified to by its clerk, with the great seal of the Court attached, as to our right to participate in the organizing of said House. We are refused, by orders of said Dennis, admission to said hall, except upon his pass or the pass of said Jones, or a certificate of H. E. Haynes, Secretary of State, who is now under the condemnation of said Court for refusal to issue certificates in accordance with its judgment and mandate. In protesting against this bare-faced usurpation; this trampling on the laws and Constitution of the State; this defiance of the highest tribunal of the State, it is our purpose to offer no resistance to this armed intervention, but to make our solemn appeal to the American people, without distinction of party. Our veneration of law, our respect for the Supreme Court, and the usages of all legislative assemblages forbid our participation in such unprecedented and revolutionary proceedings.—Signed by all the Democratic members, sixty-four in number.

The Democratic members from Edgefield and Laurens counties having been refused admittance to the hall of the House of Representatives, the Republicans immediately proceeded to organize. Fifty-nine members answered to their names. Mr. Jones, Clerk of the old House, declared fifty-nine to be a quorum, and E. W. Mackey and N. Meyers (colored) were nominated for Speaker. No Democratic members yet having come into the House, Mackey, on a call of the roll, received 57 out of the 59 votes, and was declared to be duly elected speaker, and took the chair. The House, when full, consists of 124 members, and 63 being a majority, are a quorum for the transaction of business. The Democrats, including the nine disputed members from Edgefield and Laurens, have 64 members, and the Republicans only 60 when all their members are present. The Democrats claim that 63 is the lawful quorum, while the Republicans claim that 115 is a full House, and with their 59 have gone to work. Mackey, on taking his seat as Speaker, delivered a speech, and the 59 members were then sworn in, only one Republican being absent. O. A. Jones, the former colored Clerk, was elected and sworn in. The House as now organized, contains only five whites.

Moderate Republicans denounce the proceedings as revolutionary. It is understood that General Ruger says the United States troops transcended their authority in refusing the Democrats admission. Ruger has had a conference with Hampton, Gordon, Bradley, Johnson and Haskill, the result of which is unknown. The Democrats are confident and exultant.

Reddish, a prominent Republican member, refused to enter the hall with the Federal bayonets at the door, and acts with the Democrats.

General Hampton, at the request of the Federal officer in command, addressed the excited crowd which had assembled, and said: "My friends, I am truly doing what I have done during the whole exciting contest—pouring oil on troubled waters. It is of the greatest importance to us all, citizens of South Carolina, that peace should be preserved. I appeal to you all, white men and colored, as Carolinians, to use every effort to keep down violence or turbulence. One act of violence may precipitate bloodshed and desolation. I implore you, then, to preserve the peace. I beg all my friends to disperse; to leave the grounds of the Capitol, and I advise all colored men to do the same. Keep perfectly quiet; leave the streets, and do nothing to provoke a riot. We trust to law and the Constitution, and we have perfect faith in the justice of our cause." The whites immediately dispersed, and their conduct was followed by a great many colored people.

The Democratic members elect to the House of Representatives met at 7 P.M. in Carolina hall. Sixty-four Democrats and two Republicans participated, and were sworn in by Judge Cook. The House organized, and will claim recognition to-morrow. Each House will demand of the Secretary of State the returns of the vote for Governor.

To-night (29th,) the Democrats held a mass meeting, which was addressed by General Garry and Judge Mackey. The proceedings of the Republicans, were terribly denounced.

WHEREAS, GEORGE J. LUCE, WM. H. LUCE, JOHN E. AGER and L. D. S. gold coin, bearing date November 1st, 1875, and drawing interest at the rate of one per cent. per month, from date, one of which became due and payable four months, and the other one year from the date thereof. And whereas, in pursuance of an agreement made on the said 1st day of November, 1875, between said Luce Brothers & Co. and the said Pacific Pneumatic Gas Company, there has been transferred and assigned to me two hundred shares of the capital stock of the Woodland Gas Company, a corporation duly organized under the laws of the State of California, in trust as a security for the payment of said promissory notes; and whereas by said agreement I was authorized, empowered and directed, in case of a default in the payment of either of said promissory notes, to sell at public auction in the manner prescribed by said agreement, so many shares of said capital stock as should be necessary to pay the amount due thereon, on demand of the said Pneumatic Gas Company. And whereas default has been made in the payment of the said promissory note that became due one year from its date; and whereas the said Pacific Pneumatic Gas Company has demanded such sale—Now, therefore, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Trustee as aforesaid.

NOTICE is hereby given that I will sell, at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash, in U. S. gold coin, on FRIDAY, THE 17TH DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1876, at one o'clock P. M., at the Court House door, in the town of Woodland, two hundred shares of the capital stock of the Woodland Gas Company, or so many shares thereof as shall be sufficient to pay the sum of $4,000, in U. Town and County Matters

RACE.—There will be a horse race over the Woodland course on Saturday, Dec. 23d—half-mile and repeat—for a purse of $150.

BASE BALL.—A Thanksgiving ball match will be played this afternoon at 2 o'clock, between the Silver Star Club and a picked nine.

REMARKABLE OCCURENCE.—In our "Birth" announcements is one of a son to the wife of George Myers, in Capay Valley, with a full grown tooth at birth.

CONCERT.—The concert on Sunday evening last at the Methodist Church by the Sunday School classes passed off nicely. A collection realized about twenty dollars.

TAXES.—Tax-Collector Kean hereby informs the public that the books are open for the payment of taxes at his office in the Court House. Taxes for the year 1876-77 are now due and payable.

CHANGE OF PROPRIETORS.—Mr. C. Barr has sold out his interest in the Craft Hotel Saloon to Mr. H. Simmons, who will continue to run it in modern style. Mr. Barr goes to Tulare county.

A GOOD HOUSE.—We call attention to the card of Mr. A. J. Danis of Sacramento, who keeps one of the finest stocks of boots and shoes in the State. Be sure and call on him when you visit the city.

BOARD OF EXAMINERS.—The regular quarterly meeting of the County Board of Examiners will be held at the Court House commencing on Wednesday Dec. 6th.

H. B. PENDEGAST,
Co. Superintendent of Schools.

AGAIN IN BUSINESS.—Mr. Forrester having sold out his interest in the house of Read & Forrester, Mr. J. L. Simpson, late druggist, has become a partner therein. The firm is now Read & Simpson. They propose to add to the stock and make it in every respect a first-class establishment.

CHURCH SUNDAY SCHOOL.—The ladies of the Christian Church of Woodland will give a Thanksgiving supper and Social at Washington hall this (Thursday) evening, for the benefit of the Sunday School. Supper from 6 to 9 o'clock P.M. Admission free. Tickets to supper, 50 cents. All are respectfully invited.

BUILDING.—There are several new houses now going up in this place. A. G. Read has just finished a very pretty little cottage, R. H. Beamer has a fine residence under way, Otto Schluer is building a small house to rent on Sixth street, and Burns and Dietz are preparing to build a two-story brick on the corner of Main and Second streets.

THE REAL THING.—It isn't every smoker that has ever had the exquisite pleasure of whiffing away his cares through a real genuine imported Havana cigar. Charley St. Louis has them. Also a large assortment of the best ordinary varieties. Indeed his stock embraces the greatest general variety of in his line ever brought into Yolo county.

DALE & Co.—The name of this Sacramento house is familiar to most of our readers. Mr. Dale supervises the establishment himself, and all who deal with him once are sure to call again. He has cards upon various branches of his business in this paper. From long personal acquaintance we know this house to be entirely reliable.

CORRESPONDENCE.—Unless the author of the correspondence signed "A Reader of Your Valuable Paper," will send along the real name of the writer it can receive no furthur attention. Send your name, and if known your question will be answered. We must know the source of correspondence for publication, as evidence of good faith on the part of the writer.

SUDDEN DEATH.—L. M. Rue the well known Photographer of this place, died suddenly on Monday last. On Tuesday, the day of his funeral, he would have been 45 years old. Though he had been ailing for several months it was not thought that he was so near his end, but a complication of diseases had set in which his constitution could not overcome. Thus are all, one by one, passing away.

LAND AGENCY.—The General Land Agency of California has selected J. D. Lawson, of Woodland, as its Yolo county agent, than whom it could not have chosen a better. Mr. Lawson is thoroughly acquainted with every part of our county and most parts of the State; has served as County Recorder, consequently understands titles and conveyances; and being a good business man will do correctly whatever he undertakes. Settlers and purchasers will do well to give him a call.

VICK'S FLORAL GUIDE.—We have received the No. of this valuable quarterly for January, 1877. An examination satisfies us that it is first class authority on all the subjects of which it treats. The Guide is very handsomely printed and beautifully illustrated. The colored frontispiece "Summer Boquet," is a real gem. The price is 25 cents per year—so little that every one who has the least taste for flowers should have it. Mr. Vick offers a premium of $40 in cash for the best collection of flowers at every State Fair in the Union next year. Read Mr. Vick's advertisement.

Letter from Dixon.

[From Our Regular Correspondent.]
DIXON, Nov. 27th, 1876.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:—The election excitement being over, your correspondent presumes that a few lines from this place will find space in your valuable paper.

The last two weeks hasbeen a time of sorrow and sickness in this town. About two weeks ago the first case of diptheria broke out and twelve days later we had buried fourteen children who were stricken down with that terrible disease. "Diptheria," of this word has become a terror to many of our parents. Mr. Hinman lost the only two children he had, a fearful loss to a person who had laid all his hopes and future plans for his children. Mr. Weihe lost three children, Mr. Benton lost two, Mr. Cadman two, etc., It was indeed a terrible calamity, and has cast quite a gloom over our little burg. The disease has now abated; all the children now sick are improving.

The Secretary of the State Board of Health, Dr. Hatch, of Sacramento, also Dr. Nelson of that city, were in town one day last week, to inquire into the cause of this terrible sickness. The consequence of their visit has been that our streets have been sprinkled with chloride of lime, and that the citizens now take a little more care in regard to disposing their filth, and do all they can to prevent another occurrence of this plague.

As the weather continues to be pleasant, it has done a great deal towards improving the general health of the public, also enabling farmers to put in their grain in good time. In conversing with the farmers I find that this has, so far, been one of the most favorable seasons for many years. Most of the farmers have already sown the biggest part of their crops.

On the 12th day of January, 1877, we are to have another grand Masquerade Ball in our town. The Frahm Bros., under whose auspices it will be given, have already made great preparations. Four valuable prizes will be given. I will give you a description of the prizes for the benefit of your readers at some future time.

Mr. D. Patterson has bought of Johnson Bros., the large brickbuilding opposite the City Hotel, which is now occupied as a resturant and lodging house. I understand that Mr. P. intends to continue the business, as the lease of the parties now occupying it runs out on the 15th of Febuary next.

Messrs. Martin & King have leased the Arcade Hotel and have opened an Oyster stand, where the wants of all the lovers of fat Eastern oysters are fully supplied. Mr. Royce has also opened a saloon and oysterstand in the Centennial Building.

Farmers are highly elated over the fact that wheat is selling at $1.85 with a prospect of the price going still higher. But who can tell how long this will keep up? Therefore, would it not be advisable for the farmers to sell their productions on hand at a reasonable price?

"Hurrah for ——!"—well, perhaps we will be able to fill out the blank the 5th of March next. The reports and opinions in regard to the Presidential election are so different and so confusing that it is hard to tell whether we will have any President to inaugurate next year or not.

Mr. Wyman, Cashier of the Dixon Bank, has resigned, and Mr. A. J. Kesten, formerly book-keeper in that institution, has been selected as his successor. I congratulate the Directors upon their good choice. Mr. Kasten will undoubtedly make an efficient officer, as he possesses all the business qualities for that responsible position. The stockholders of the Bank held a meeting last week and reëlected their old Directors, with the exception of J. C. Merryfield, vice E. Wolfskill, resigned.

Mercantile houses are doing a good business at the present time; most of the farmers are laying in their supplies for the Winter, as during the rainy season some of our roads are almost impassable. Yours, ROMAN.

SECOND STREET.—Arrangements are going ahead for opening Second south of Main street. Burns & Deitz are tearing down the brick building that stands upon the street, having purchased the same for that purpose, and will use the materials as far as they go in the erection of a building on their corner lot adjoining. D. B. Goode, who occupies the centre of the block has erected a new fence across the street as laid out, which will probably cause legal proceedings. All the other property holders interested have accepted the terms of the Commission appointed to assess damages and benefits. Mr Goode claims that he is asked to pay too much, we believe $400.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.—Rev. Joseph Lanman, late of Westhampton, Mass., will supply the pulpit of this church next Sunday, both morning and evening. It is the intention of the church to secure, if possible, the permanent services of Mr. Lanman, who is regarded by those who know him as a man of talent, social qualities and experience in the Ministry. It is hoped that Mr. Lanman will be prevailed upon to settle in Woodland, X.

LECTURE.—Dr. Dean Clark will lecture at Central Hall on next Sunday at 3 P. M. on "The Evidences of Immortality." The Occult Sciences will be explained. A general attendance is desired.

THANKSGIVING.—In obedience to the powers that be, and also of our own free will, we give thanks to-day for all the blessings we are permitted to enjoy.

"MAINTAINING ORDER."—Under this specious plea the President of the United States and the Secretary of War on the 26th instant issued the following orders. They should have been headed "Orders to defeat the Expressed Will of the People of a Sovereign State:"

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26th.—To General Thomas H. Ruger or Colonel H. M. Black, Columbia, South Carolina. The following has been received from the President:

EXECUTIVE MANSION, Nov. 26th.—Hon. J. D. Cameron, Secretary of War: D. H. Chamberlain is now Governor of the State of South Carolina beyond any controversy, and remains so until a new Governor shall be duly and legally inaugurated under the Constitution. The Government has been called upon to aid with the military and naval forces of the United States to maintain a Republican Government in the State against resistance too formidable to be overcome by the State authorities. You are directed, therefore, to sustain Governor Chamberlain in his authority against domestic violence until otherwise directed. U. S. GRANT."

In obeying these instructions you will advise with the Governor, and dispose your troops in such a manner as may be deemed best in order to carry out the spirit of the above order of the President. Acknowledge receipt.

J. D. CAMERON,
Secretary of War.

Under Democratic management the Federal Government did not interfere with the affairs of States. It will not do so after Tilden's inauguration. But till then we do not expect the rights of the people or of States to be respected.

REVOLUTION AND DESTRUCTION.—A press dispatch in the Record-Union of Tuesday last, dated Columbia, South Carolina, Nov. 27th, says;

General Hampton's home, three miles from this city, was burned Friday last, during the night. The flames so quickly burst simultaneously from all parts of the building that the Generals, two sisters and two young sons, had only time to escape with their lives. The library and articles of vertu, saved from the fire in 1865, when Hamptou's father's home was burned at the same time as his own, the silver and clothes were all burned. The ladies escaped saving only their dressing gowns, and General Hampton has not a single article of clothing except those he has on. The fire was incendiary. The General lodged in the city that night. No insurance.

General Hampton has just been elected Governor of South Carolina by the Democrats, as admitted by the Radicals' own figures. Individuals will draw their own conclusions from the reading of the dispatch. Ours is that the desperate carpet-baggers have procured the perpetration of the foul deed.

WHEAT.—Our local buyers are paying about $1.85 per cental for good wheat.

EAST AURORA, N. Y., May 22d, 1872.
MESSRS. SETH W. FOWLE & SONS:
Gentlemen—I was troubled with Dyspepsia for thirty years, and tried several medicines advertised for the cure of this distressing complaint without deriving any benefit from them. About a year ago I commenced taking the PERUVIAN SYRUP, and after using altogether twelve bottles I find myself entirely cured. I consider my case one of the worst I ever heard of, and I take great pleasure in recommending the PERUVIAN SYRUP to all Dyspeptics, believing that it will be sure to cure them.
Yours respectfully, J. T. BOWEN.

Nothing but the Truth.

It is nothing but the truth to call Hostetter's Stomach Bitters one of the most comprehensive remedies ever in existence. Disease in so many cruel guises has yielded to its curative action, its combined invigorating and alterative properties constitute it such a powerful agent for the promotion or restoration of health, that it may well be doubted whether it does not bear away the palm from all competitors of its class, both as a healer and a safeguard. Through the agencies of restored digestion, a regular habit of body and complete secretion, it overcomes the various maladies which the interruption of those functions produces. Dyspepsia, liver complaint, urinary affections, nervous debility, insomnia, and maladies of a yet more serious nature, are eradicated by its systematic use. It restores the appetite, promotes sound, refreshing sleep, and neutralizes those atmospheric causes which originate chills and fever and other miasmatic disorders. Elderly persons find in this comforting elixir not only a remedy for the numerous bodily ills to which age is peculiarly subject, but a genuine solace and support. Females in delicate health use it as a means of overcoming those disabilities and irregularities which afflict the gentler sex, and nervous or billious subjects derive the promptest and most complete relief from it. There is, in short, no class of invalids that is not benefitted by the Bitters. It recreates wasted strength, fortifies the system against disease, and is one of the most reliable cordials in existence for overcoming the effects of fatigue, and affording protection against the consequence of exposure.

HAVE you inflammatory sore throat, stiff joints, or lameness from any cause whatever? Have you rheumatic or other pains in any part of the body? If so, use "Johnson's Anodyne Liniment," internally and externally.

TROOPS AND MONEY.—On the day after the election Zack Chandler sent the following telegram to Gov. Stearns of Florida:

"WASHINGTON, November 8, 1876. To Gov. M. L. Stearns:—Florida must be made Republican. Troops and money will be furnished. Z. CHANDLER."

The operator through whose hands this dispatch passed was incautious enough to reveal its contents, and he was summarily dismissed; but the dispatch stands as the expression of the purpose of the Administration and the means by which it is intended to thwart the popular will, as expressed through the ballot-box. So says the Examiner.

A Spanish Poem.

[The following is a translation from an ancient Spanish poem, which, says the Edinburgh Review," is surpassed my nothing with which we are acquainted in the Spanish language, except the Odes of Louis De Leon."]

Oh! let the soul its slumber break,
Arouse its senses and awake,
To see how soon
Life, with its glory glides away,
And the stern footsteps of decay
Come rolling on.

And while we eye the rolling tide,
Down which our flowing minutes glide
Away so fast,
Let us the present hour employ,
And deem each future dream of joy
Already past.

Let no vain hope deceive the mind;
No happier let us hope to find
To-morrow than to-day.
Our golden dreams of yore were bright;
Like them the present shall delight—
Like them decay.

Our lives like hasting streams must be,
That into one engulfing sea
Are doomed to fall—
The sea of death, whose waves roll on
O'er king and kingdom, crown and throne,
And swallow all.

Alike the river's lordly tide,
Alike the humble rivulets glide
To that sad wave;
Death levels property and pride,
And rich and poor step side by side
Within the grave.

Our birth is but the starting place,
Life is the running of the race,
And death the goal;
There all those glittering toys are brought;
The path alone, of all unsought,
Is found of all.

Say, then, how poor and little worth
Are all those glittering toys of earth
That lure us here!
Dreams of a sleep that death must break
Alas! before it bids us wake,
Yet disappear!

General News Items.

Mr. Hayes' vote in Pennsylvania is 127,000 less than was Grant's in '72.

Hayes' majority over all in his own State, turns out, by the official count, to be only 2,743.

Gold coin to the amount of $2,370,675 has been received at New York from Europe this week.

A fight is reported near Puerto Principe, Cuba, in which newly-arrived Spanish troops were defeated.

Horatio Seymour thinks the election will be settled by a general acquiescence in the choice of Mr. Tilden.

Charles Francis Adams says that the "counting in" of Hayes would be the most monstrous political crime ever conceived in this country.

The fruit sent East in refrigerator cars by the California Fruit Growing Association is arriving in prime condition by the fast freight trains.

Since the first of July 187 vessels loaded with ten and a half millions of dollars worth of wheat have sailed from San Francisco for Europe.

The New York Herald wishes the Florida Radicals would send something more tangible than "about five thousand," qualified by "if," "but," and "unless."

Sufficient returns have been received from Florida to show that the Democrats have carried both branches of the Legislature, and will have thirteen majority on joint ballot.

With a fair count we will have a Democratic President for the next four years. With an unfair count we will not have any President at all. We will have a Dictator.

Official returns from the Fourth Congressional District are all in the Secretary of State's office and show the election of Pacheco by one majority. The vote stands, Pacheco, 19,104; Wigginton, 19,103.

Judge J. T. Barnard, a Radical of Florida, Commissioner at the Centennial, states to an interviewing reporter that he has no doubt that Florida has gone Democratic, by at least 1,500 majority. So says the N. Y. Sun of Nov. 16th.

The latest returns from Illinois show the Legislature to stand thus: Senate—Democrats 24; Radicals 20; Independents 7. House—Democrats 77; Radicals 76. This gives the Democrats and Independents a majority of 12 on joint ballot.

The Democrats will have a large majority in the next General Assembly of North Carolina. So far the returns indicate that the House will stand eighty Democrats to forty Republicans and the Senate not less than forty Democrats to about ten Republicans. Yet a few days ago the Radicals claimed North Carolina for Hayes.

Peter Cooper, the third party Presidential candidate, says: "There is not the least doubt that the party in power would practice fraud to secure the election of their candidates, but the will of the people, as expressed in the ballot-box, may prevent them from doing so. But in the event of Mr. Tilden being counted out by fraudulent or illegal means, I have good reasons to fear trouble—perhaps a second civil war."

ONE OF THE CANDIDATES ON LOUISIANA TWO YEARS AGO.—William A. Wheeler in his Report on Louisiana, said: "In our judgment this condition of things is fraught with the graves; peril to the whole country. That the people of any State should be unwilling or unable to determine, by peaceful and legal means, the result of their elections, and that the President should be compelled to interpose the military force of the Government to prevent civil war, is itself a terrible misfortune. But the evil goes much further. Upon the elections in Louisiana, as in other States, depends the right to their seats of Senators and Representatives, who are to aid in making laws for the whole country, and the choice of Presidential Electors, upon whose vote may depend the title to office of the President of the United States himself. No party in the United States will like to submit to a result decided by the votes of electors chosen by such means. Each party will be likely to credit charges of fraud and violence made against its opponent, and to discredit like charges made against its own side. There is, in our judgment, the greatest danger that these elements may enter into the next national election to so great an extent that it may leave the real expression of the will of the people in doubt. In such case, an appeal to force, like that which has been made in Louisiana, must result in civil war, spreading throughout the entire country."

Centaur Liniments!

The Quickest, Surest and Cheapest Remedies.

Physicians recommend, and Farriers declare that no such remedies have ever before been in use. Words are cheap, but the proprietors of these articles will present trial bottles to medical men, gratis, and will guarantee more rapid and satisfactory results than have ever before been obtained.

The Centaur Liniment, White Wrapper, will cure Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Sciatica, Caked Breasts, Sore Nipples, Frosted Feet, Chilblains, Swellings, Sprains, and any ordinary FLESH, BONE OR MUSCLE AILMENT.

It will extract the poison of bites and stings, and heal burns or scalds without a scar. Lock-jaw, Palsy, Weak Back, Caked Breasts, Earache, Toothache, Itch and Cutaneous Eruptions readily yield to its treatment.

Henry Black, of Ada, Hardin Co., Ohio, says: "My wife has had rheumatism for five years—no rest, no sleep—could scarcely walk across the floor. She is now completely cured by the use of Centaur Liniment. We all feel thankful to you, and recommend your wonderful medicine to all our friends."

James Hurd, of Zanesville, O., says: "The Centaur Liniment cured my neuralgia."

Alfred Tush, of Newark, writes: "Send me one dozen bottles by express. The Liniment has saved my leg. I want to distribute it, etc."

The sale of this Liniment is increasing rapidly.

The Centaur Liniment, Yellow Wrapper, is for the tough skin, flesh and muscles of HORSES, MULES AND ANIMALS.

We have never yet seen a case of Spavin, Sweeny, Ring-bone, Wind-gall, Scratches or Poll-Evil, which this Liniment would not speedily benefit, and we never saw but a few cases which it would not cure. It will cure when anything can. It is folly to spend $20 for a Farrier, when one dollar's worth of Centaur Liniment will do better. The following is a sample of the testimony produced:

"JEFFERSON, Mo., Nov. 10, 1873.

"Some time ago I was shipping horses to St. Louis. I got one badly crippled in the car. With great difficulty I got him to the stable, on Fourth Avenue. The stable-keeper gave me a bottle of your Centaur Liniment, which I used with such success that in two days the horse was active and nearly well. I have been a veterinary surgeon for thirty years, but your liniment heads anything I ever used.

"A. J. M'CARTY, Veterinary Surgeon."

For a postage stamp we will mail a Centaur Almanac, containing hundreds of certificates, from every State in the Union. These Liniments are now sold by all dealers in the country.

Mothers.

Castoria is the result of 20 years' experiments, by Dr. Samuel Pitcher, of Massachusetts. It is a vegetable preparation as effective as Castor Oil, but perfectly pleasant to the taste. It can be taken by the youngest infant, and neither gags nor gripes. Dr. A. J. Green, of Royston, Ind., says of it:

SIRS:—I have tried the Castoria and can speak highly of its merits. It will, I think, do away entirely with Castor Oil; it is pleasant and harmless, and is wonderfully efficacious as an aperient and laxative. It is the very thing.

The Castoria destroys worms, regulates the Stomach, cures Wind Colic, and permits of natural healthy sleep. It is very efficacious in Croup, and for Teething Children. Honey is not pleasanter to the taste, and Castor Oil is not so certain in its effects. It costs but 35 cents, in large bottles.

AITKEN & LUCE

Make the following proposition to those who wish Monuments or Headstones, and who come to the City for the express purpose of selecting.

We will pay the R.R. fare both ways when the distance and amount of purchase compare with the following table:

$50 00	Contract—	30	miles	or less.
$75.00	"	40	"	"
$100.00	"	50	"	"
$250.00	"	75	"	"
$500.00	"	150	"	"
$1,000.00	"	300	"	"

Thus giving purchasers the opportunity of making their selections, instead of dealing with inexperienced canvassers.

Cut this out and bring it with you, and after you have made your purchase, present it, and we will give you credit for your R. R. fare both ways.

We wish it distinctly understood that we work any kind of marble desired, and as low as the lowest.

CENTENNIAL EXHIBITION,

PHILADELPHIA, PA.

THIS GREAT INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION, DESIGNED TO COMMEMORATE THE ONE HUNDREDTH ANNIVERSARY OF AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE, OPENED MAY 10th, AND WILL CLOSE NOVEMBER 10th, 1876. All the Nations of the world and all the States and Territories of the Union are participating in this wonderful demonstration, bringing together the most comprehensive collection of art treasures, mechanical inventions, scientific discoveries, manufacturing achievements, mineral specimens, and agricultural products ever exhibited. The grounds devoted to the Exhibition are situated on the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and embrace four hundred and fifty acres of Fairmount Park, all highly improved and ornamented, on which are erected the largest buildings ever constructed,—five of these covering an area of fifty acres and costing $5,000,000. The total number of buildings erected for the purposes of the Exhibition is near two hundred. During the thirty days immediately following the opening of the Exhibition a million and a quarter of people visited it.

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD,

THE GREAT TRUNK LINE

—AND—

Fast Mail Route of the United States,

Is the most direct, convenient and economical way of reaching Philadelphia and this great Exhibition from all sections of the country. Its trains to and from Philadelphia will pass through a GRAND CENTENNIAL DEPOT, which the Company have erected at the Main Entrance to the Exhibition Grounds, for the accommodation of passengers who wish to stop at or start from the numerous large hotels contiguous to this station and the Exhibition, a convenience of the greatest value to visitors, and afforded exclusively by the Pennsylvania Railroad, which is THE ONLY LINE RUNNING DIRECT TO THE CENTENNIAL BUILDINGS. Excursion trains will also stop at the Encampment of the Patrons of Husbandry, at Elm Station on this road.

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD IS THE GRANDEST RAILWAY ORGANIZATION IN THE WORLD. IT CONTROLS SEVEN-THOUSAND MILES OF ROADWAY, FORMING CONTINUOUS LINES TO WASHINGTON, OVER WHICH LUXURIOUS DAY AND NIGHT CARS ARE RUN FROM CHICAGO, ST. LOUIS, LOUISVILLE, CINCINNATI, INDIANAPOLIS, COLUMBUS, TOLEDO, CLEVELAND, AND ERIE, WITHOUT CHANGE.

Its main line is laid with double and third tracks of heavy steel rails upon a deep bed of broken stone ballast, and its bridges are all of iron or stone. Its passenger trains are equipped with every known improvement for comfort and safety, and are run at faster speed for greater distances than the trains of any line on the continent. The Company has largely increased its equipment for Centennial travel, and will be prepared to build in its own shops locomotives and passenger cars at short notice sufficient to fully accommodate any extra demand. The unequaled resources at the command of the Company guarantee the most perfect accommodations for its patrons during the Centennial Exhibition.

THE MAGNIFICENT SCENERY for which the Pennsylvania Railroad is so justly celebrated presents to the traveler over its perfect roadway an ever-changing panorama of river, mountain and landscape views unequaled in America.

THE EATING-STATIONS on this line are unsurpassed. Meals will be furnished at suitable hours and ample time allowed for enjoying them.

EXCURSION TICKETS, at reduced rates, will be sold at all principal Railroad Ticket Offices in the West, North-west and South-west.
